Course Overview

The 1 day course will give participants re-accreditation for the knowledge and practical skills required for Confined Space Entry. It is a requirement as stated in the Australian/New Zealand Standard 2865:2001 that personnel be retrained at regular intervals. Upon successful completion and assessment throughout the workshop participants will be re-issued with an updated Student Identification Card and a new expiry date. All participants are required to provide proof of a current Confined Space Entry Certificate which has been issued within the previous 2 years.

Dress

A minimum standard of clothing consisting of short trousers, sleeved shirt and fully enclosed footwear is required. Failure to wear the correct clothing may result in training being refused.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

Alcohol cannot be consumed on Accrete premises. In the opinion of management, if a participant is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol, then management shall remove that person from Accrete premises. Notification to the person's employer may be made if the employer paid for the course.

Pre-requisites

Participants must have successfully completed these units of competency within the last two years. For participants who have not previously been trained at Accrete, a copy of a Statement of Attainment provided by another training organisation will be required as proof of previous training. If there are any medical concerns they must be discussed with Accrete prior to attending the course.

Competency Based Assessment: Competency Assessment is the collection of evidence by the Registered Training Organisation (RTO) demonstrating that the trainee can perform to the standard expected in the workplace as expressed in the relevant endorsed industry competency standard. As a trainee on a competency based training course you will be required to complete the following methods of evidence collection: Theory, quiz and practical skills demonstration of the elements listed in the course information.

Appeals: All trainees who find themselves deemed "Not Yet Competent" have the right to appeal that decision. All appeals shall be directed, in writing, to the General Manager, Accrete, within one month of the completion of the course. The appeal must identify and provide evidence of one of the following:

- The judgement as to whether competence has been achieved and demonstrated was made incorrectly.
- The judgement was not made in accordance with the Assessment Plan.

Where there is no satisfactory solution, provision will be made for reassessment.

Evidence of Prior Training: Accrete has a recognition policy in relation to trainees gaining recognition for any Nationally Accredited qualifications or units of competency. Evidence may be submitted in the following forms:

- Evidence of current competency during the recognition process itself
- Relatively recent evidence presented by the trainee that provides a good indication of current competence
- Historical evidence provided by the trainee showing proof of prior learning at an earlier time

Other policies and information can be viewed on our websites at www.accrete.net.au

Catering: Sample our great range of coffee from our coffee bar, tea and cool water is also provided. Lunch can be purchased from nearby take-away shops. A fridge is provided if you would prefer to bring your own. Dine in our air-conditioned lunchroom or in our garden pergola. Catering can be provided for group bookings for an additional cost.
