Competency Based Assessment: Competency Assessment is the collection of evidence by the Registered Training Organisation (RTO) demonstrating that the trainee can perform to the standard expected in the workplace as expressed in the relevant endorsed industry competency standard. As a trainee on a competency based training course you will be required to complete the following methods of evidence collection: Theory, quiz and practical skills demonstration of the elements listed in the course information.

Appeals: All trainees who find themselves deemed "Not Yet Competent" have the right to appeal that decision. All appeals shall be directed, in writing, to the General Manager, Accrete, within one month of the completion of the course. The appeal must identify and provide evidence of one of the following:

- The judgement as to whether competence has been achieved and demonstrated was made incorrectly.
- The judgement was not made in accordance with the Assessment Plan.

Where there is no satisfactory solution, provision will be made for reassessment.

Evidence of Prior Training: Accrete has a recognition policy in relation to trainees gaining recognition for any Nationally Accredited qualifications or units of competency. Evidence may be submitted in the following forms:

- Evidence of current competency during the recognition process itself
- Relatively recent evidence presented by the trainee that provides a good indication of current competence
- Historical evidence provided by the trainee showing proof of prior learning at an earlier time

Other policies and information can be viewed on our website at www.accrete.net.au
